Robin Newman, PsyD

Dr. Newman is a graduate of Baylor University where she received her bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. After graduating, she taught 1st and 2nd grades in Texas and New Mexico for nearly 10 years before staying at home with her children. During the time of her absence from the classroom, Dr. Newman stayed busy as a pastor's wife, raising her three children, and writing. She is an accomplished author, having written numerous journal articles and greeting cards. She has also published a book for children entitled, "That I Might Not Sin". Later, Dr. Newman achieved another lifelong dream by obtaining her doctorate in clinical psychology at Colorado School of Professional Psychology where she specialized in childhood disorders and treatment. Most recently, Dr. Newman has become a Certified Sexual Recovery Therapist.

Dr. Newman's unique ability to compassionately join her clients where they are, honoring their diversity, and yet skillfully guiding them through the healing process makes her a very capable and sought-after therapist. Her calm demeanor creates a warm environment in which many find it easy to relate. Dr. Newman has a deep love of family, friends, and faith and enjoys working with patients of all ages, especially those who have experienced trauma or have special needs. Dr. Newman and her husband, Patrick are also available to lead weekend marriage conferences entitled "Living Beyond the Ordinary."
